THE FACULTY

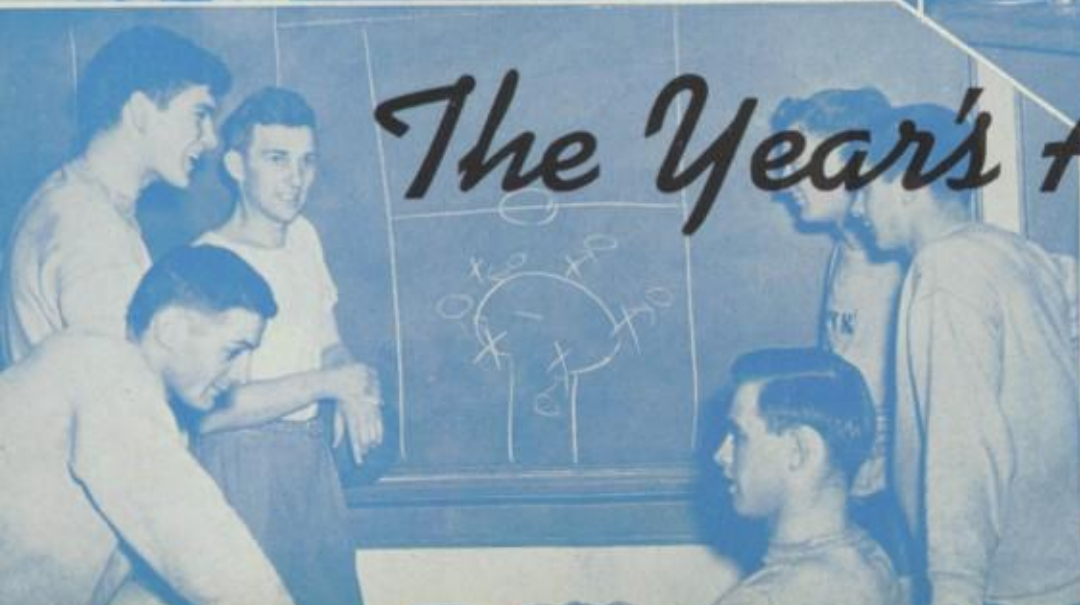

The last answer to the age-long criticism of secondary education is the vocational high school. The very last word in building and equipment for this type of school is Timken Vocational High School.

We have become convinced that accurate work with tools or lathe, with anvil and hammer, with violin or piano, with pencil or brush, trains well the faculties with which we do our thinking. The aim of our school might be called a process of developing the pupil from what he is to what he ought to be.

The spirit of Timken Vocational High School seems to emphasize the practical and social side of the pupil's efficiency. It seems to be the desire to prepare the pupils for a life of activity and service. It is fondly hoped that each pupil will be most likely to become the most intelligent, conscientious, and efficient citizen possible considering his mental and physical endowments and limitations.

The students of Timken Vocational High School dedicate the second edition of the TIVO to the spirit of industry and to the vision and courage of the great leaders in industry, who in this community, have wrought much that is of significance to us. We are proud of our City of Diversified Industries. While dedicating this volume to the spirit and achievement of those whose energies were given over to the development of this community, we do so, confident that the students of Timken Vocational High School will do their utmost to carry on in the same spirit of service.

MR. JESSE H. MASON
Superintendent of Schools

More than merely an educator, more than merely our Superintendent of Schools, more than the leader and planner of the processes of providing for the boys and girls of Canton the education which means so much to them, Mr. Jesse H. Mason is their friend, and one of their best friends. During the twelve years of his service in our community many thousands of boys and girls have come to know this, and to realize his genuine love for them and anxiety that they shall have the utmost possible chance for a right start in life that our schools can give them, and in return, he has won their deep affection. Many thousands of parents, too, are grateful to him for what he has done, both by his leadership of the schools and by his friendliness toward their children.

The students of Timken High School, therefore, extend once more to Mr. Mason their affectionate greetings, assuring him that they return in full measure the friendship he has manifested toward them; and in these greetings we know that all the teachers, friends of the schools, and citizens of Canton join.

FORD O. HARRISON, Principal

G. F. MALICK, Vocational Director

Timken Vocational High School is not exclusively for industrial training. Academic subjects are very prominent. The value of history, civics, and mathematics is not lost in the midst of shops and laboratories.

Mr. Harrison is the busy man who supervises the activities of the entire building and directs the teaching of all of these subjects. He stresses the importance of art, music, and literature in the development of a good personality. His belief that Mozart, Emerson and machinery interweave easily is being practiced at Timken High.

Mr. Harrison is very ambitious for Timken students in all phases of education. He is happiest when a student has achieved outstanding success or when some boy or girl in whom he has had confidence, "makes good."

HELEN POPA

VIOLET HARTZELL

LUCINDA HEINTZELMAN

Mr. Malick brings a vast amount of experience to his position as director of vocational work at Timken. His keen understanding of detail makes it possible for him to skillfully handle schedules and courses. The training which Timken students receive results in their rapid advancement from apprentices to skilled workers.

Mr. Malick helped make possible the cooperative plan giving students the opportunity to receive further experience by actually working at their trade.

Cheerfully and smilingly, he gives advice to students and cooperates in obtaining positions for the Timken graduates.

Senior Review

In the year 1937, three hundred eighty-one Freshmen were launched out on the high seas which were to represent their high school careers. The plans of some of these inexperienced pilots were still quite vague and undecided, so as time went on their courses were frequently altered. By the time they were halfway across, their courses were quite permanently mapped out and as juniors at the new Timken Vocational High School they were hopefully steered toward port—their goal—that of graduating with talent for a definite type of work.

During the last year of the voyage many interesting events were recorded in the log by Captain Bob Harris, acting as President of the class. His first mates, Betty Sandera, secretary, Marilyn Stantz, treasurer, and Ray Crowl, vice president, have helped him guide the ship through a successful year.

Members of the crew were endowed with a trait of sportsmanship which has distinguished the class. They cheered their athletic teams in thrilling games and rejoiced with them in brilliant victories. When defeat came, they shared it. A certain feeling of pride in Timken High School will certainly remain with them and they will follow the feats of the school all through the years.

Class Night brought to light the fact that to the class of 1941 also belongs an abundance of leadership ability. The students who received rewards were duly deserving of them.

At Baccalaureate the ship's crew solemnly accepted valuable advice and guidance. Commencement brought joy mingled with sadness.

So here's to our Seniors, as they take leave of the ship and each ventures out for himself.

Juniors

There is nothing conceited about Fred Harold, Junior President for the year 1941. In fact you could call him very modest.

One of the most popular fellows at Timken, he is temperate, and easy-going, and provides many laughs for his classmates and friends.

Although he plans to follow the bookkeeping vocation after graduation, Fred is a sport enthusiast and has engaged in many backfield scrimmages and basketball matches.

A general summary of his assets gives us permission to say that he was our leader, and will be a leader in everything he does.

It seems as though sports is the theme for the students of Timken High School. At least sporty is the best description that we can find for Sue Kestle, Fred Harold's aid in managing the junior presidency.

Not only in dressing does the word "sporty" pertain to Sue, but she is a great lover of outdoor games. Roller skating, ice skating, swimming, horseback riding, and tennis are but a few included in her list of hobbies.

These things, combined with her superior personality, make Sue just what she is—a girl swell to look at and one with whom to associate and admire.

A girl who can be very feminine and still not be afraid of mussing her hair or smudging her lipstick is Catherine Cline, the tiny secretary of the Junior Class.

Catherine is the captain of the tumbling team, and intramural manager of the G. A. A. She belongs to Dramatic Club and had a lead in "What A Life!"

"Katie" may be a very small girl, but her talent and amiability recalls to our minds the wise saying "surprises come in small packages."

The last but by far not the least of the quartet of officers is Bill Wingert, financial wizard for the class parties.

However, there are other matters that require his attention, and one of these is tennis. To show you exactly what a very mean tennis racket Bill swings, go to him yourself and let him exhibit the medal he won for his skill in the game.

All this has not turned his head, and on this reason is probably based the welcome with which he is received wherever he goes.

Junior Review

It is quite natural that every autumn when school is resumed, the thoughts of many students are not always centered specifically upon the problems to be found in a math book or a chemistry lab. After a summer devoted mostly to sleeping, eating, and merely loafing, it requires a good deal of planning to detour the pleasure-bent minds to more serious meditations.

It is to be expected, therefore, that this burden should fall upon the person who finally steps from the din of battle to receive the crown that honors him as chief of his class.

The election of this officer is usually a lengthy affair, with much deliberation over the candidates. But this year it so happened that Fred Harold was chosen almost unanimously, and with him were chosen the trio of Catherine Cline, Sue Kestel, and Bill Wingert to balance and aid him. The juniors settled down content with their leaders and the distinction which these leaders would bring them.

It was not long, moreover, before distinction really began to cast her stately head in our direction. Whenever life seemed to get just a little too monotonous, Miss Dorothy Easton would suggest a party, and with decorations transforming the gym, and Elaine Seeman's committee to provide the refreshments, these affairs took on such gay aspects that seniors, sophomores, and even freshmen fought to purchase tickets.

Now all this time we have been growing up. No more falling down stairs or tripping the light fantastic is seen in the halls. We have completely acquired the sophistication necessary to upperclassmen.

We are prepared to take the threads of activity where the seniors leave them and weave for ourselves a definite vocation to follow after graduation. It is with this future in mind that we now quit the Timken halls for our last vacation before assuming the full responsibility of citizenship.

Sophomores

"Personality Plus" is the rating of these four all-around, swell fellows and girls.

BETTY TOLBERT, who wishes she had raven black hair (peroxide's cheap, Betty!), enjoys her work in the library very much. She wants to become an efficient secretary and a certain young man would enjoy employing her. Betty likes Bob Hope—cherry pie—Kenny Baker—"You Walked By"—turquoise blue—and lilies of the valley.

Then there is RUTH BRICK, a lovely blond, who likes her hair the way it is (and who wouldn't?). She would like to own a beauty shop and a convertible. Ruth considers G. W. T. W. the best movie she has ever seen and likes blue (mighty popular color)—forget-me-nots — English — Henry Aldrich — Frenesi — Errol Flynn — and (what, again?) cherry pie.

JACK STOKOE is a good-looking young fellow who dotes on hamburgers with dill pickles and was quite surprised when he was elected president. He enjoys Bob Crosby—James Stewart—basketball—Jack Benny—blue—and dislikes flirts. His favorite song is "Big Noise from Winnetka," but it seems that he is the only person who has ever heard it.

And last but not least, we come to JAMES SNELLENBERGER. James would like to own a horse ranch in South America. He also likes Fibber McGee—Gary Cooper—football—spinach—gardenias—and (here it is again) blue. Quiet and dignified in speech and manner, James is a "natural" for a class officer.

Sophomore Review

After spending a harrowing year being looked down upon as "mere freshmen," it was with great pride and a feeling of old age that we ascended to the rank of sophomore in Timken High.

Of the four years one spends in high school, the sophomore year is usually the most enjoyable, and so it was with us. Our parties were just the "last word," we contributed a number of our more limber pals to the tumbling teams, and the Glammer Goons was an excellent basketball team composed of girls, who appropriately or not, (they claim the latter) called themselves by this name.

Everyone seemed to enjoy himself this year and did not study too hard—perhaps to make up for being so studious as a freshman, or to "rest up" and collect some calories for the harder work of a junior.

We contributed to the band such notables as Peter Foradas, Marjorie Bressler and Nick Vardakis; the "drawma" was helped on its illustrious way by Shirley Coleman and Gust Elefteretes; and many new muscles were built up in athletics by Vernon Kohn, Bob Forney and Eugene McKelly.

There was the usual falling down stairs, embarrassedly coming out of the wrong gym room, getting stuck in the elevator, being hauled out of the auditorium for being much, much too noisy during the movie, and all other idiosyncrasies typical of the sophomore.

So add fun, not too much study, and a group of very likeable boys and girls together; and even the F— student of the math class could get the correct answer.

Freshmen

Back in September, when Timken High was still a vague mirage to the incoming Freshmen, this same class decided they had a little sweeping to do. To start out, they swept one of the best pebbles on the beach, Ray Patterson, right into the office of President. This act proved no waste of broom bristles, as Ray, known to his pals as "John Apple," has handled the "situation" very capably. He doesn't make public his political views, but by the number of his friends, it can be clearly seen he doesn't believe in "isolation." Another distinguished pebble, in name only, Shirley Scott, slid in right along side of him as his running mate. Shirley is a firm believer in Article 1 of the Timken High Constitution, which states that every student must have school spirit. "The harder we cheer, the more points those Trojans will ring up," she says. Probably the least energy of all was needed to sweep in Patty McLaughlin, as secretary. She also is a pebble in name only, and a little shinier than most of them, because she sparkles in everything she undertakes. An important part of every firm is to have the books balanced, and we could always depend on Patty to juggle them in our favor. To round out the foursome, someone was needed to handle the Freshmen "fortune." Morgenthau wasn't handy, but Jack Alden was so wholeheartedly for his class that his mates had a tough time convincing him not to print counterfeit money and credit it to the "Freshies" in the treasury.

Freshman Review

"All aboard for Sophomoretown! All aboard!" In only a few moments we will all be leaving Freshmenville to begin the second lap of our journey up the steep hill to Graduationton. No one possesses a round-trip ticket, so let's take a quick glance over a glorious first-year journey, and cross our fingers for the events to come.

Shortly after we left Eighth-Grade Town, without a donkey or an elephant, Ray Patterson was placed at the helm as president. Shirley Scott became a "Henry Wallace," Patty McLaughlin was chosen to sit on the boss's knee, and Jack Alden was asked to handle the "cash."

This same staff got things together, appointed committees, and made possible the debut of the Freshmen into Timken High "Sassiety" at that never-to-be-forgotten Freshmen Party.

Over there, in the Representatives' Coach, Home Room 430 placed a very distinguished member in Fred Tilsley of Heston, England. Fred's chief interest is airplanes, and that can be readily understood because he has three brothers in the R. A. F.

In clubs the first year "bunch" was well represented, and were not to be outdone in athletics, placing "Pete" Sanchez, Joe Alvarez and Paul Seeman on the reserve football squad.

The second annual Timken Revue saw Florence Klimczyk, Jean Hill, Rose Intocchio, and Alice Xenos, all freshmen, perform with the best of them. Kenneth Arrant, Glenn Stertzbach, and Eleanor Pleasant also received their share of glory.

The ——— "All Aboard!"

Well, there's that conductor calling again. Give my regards to those coming in on the next train, and we hope they enjoy the journey in their first ride at Timken, in the coming year, as much as we did.

Coaches

Stressing sportsmanship first, the three men at the head of our athletic department have succeeded in placing Timken among the athletic elite of the state.

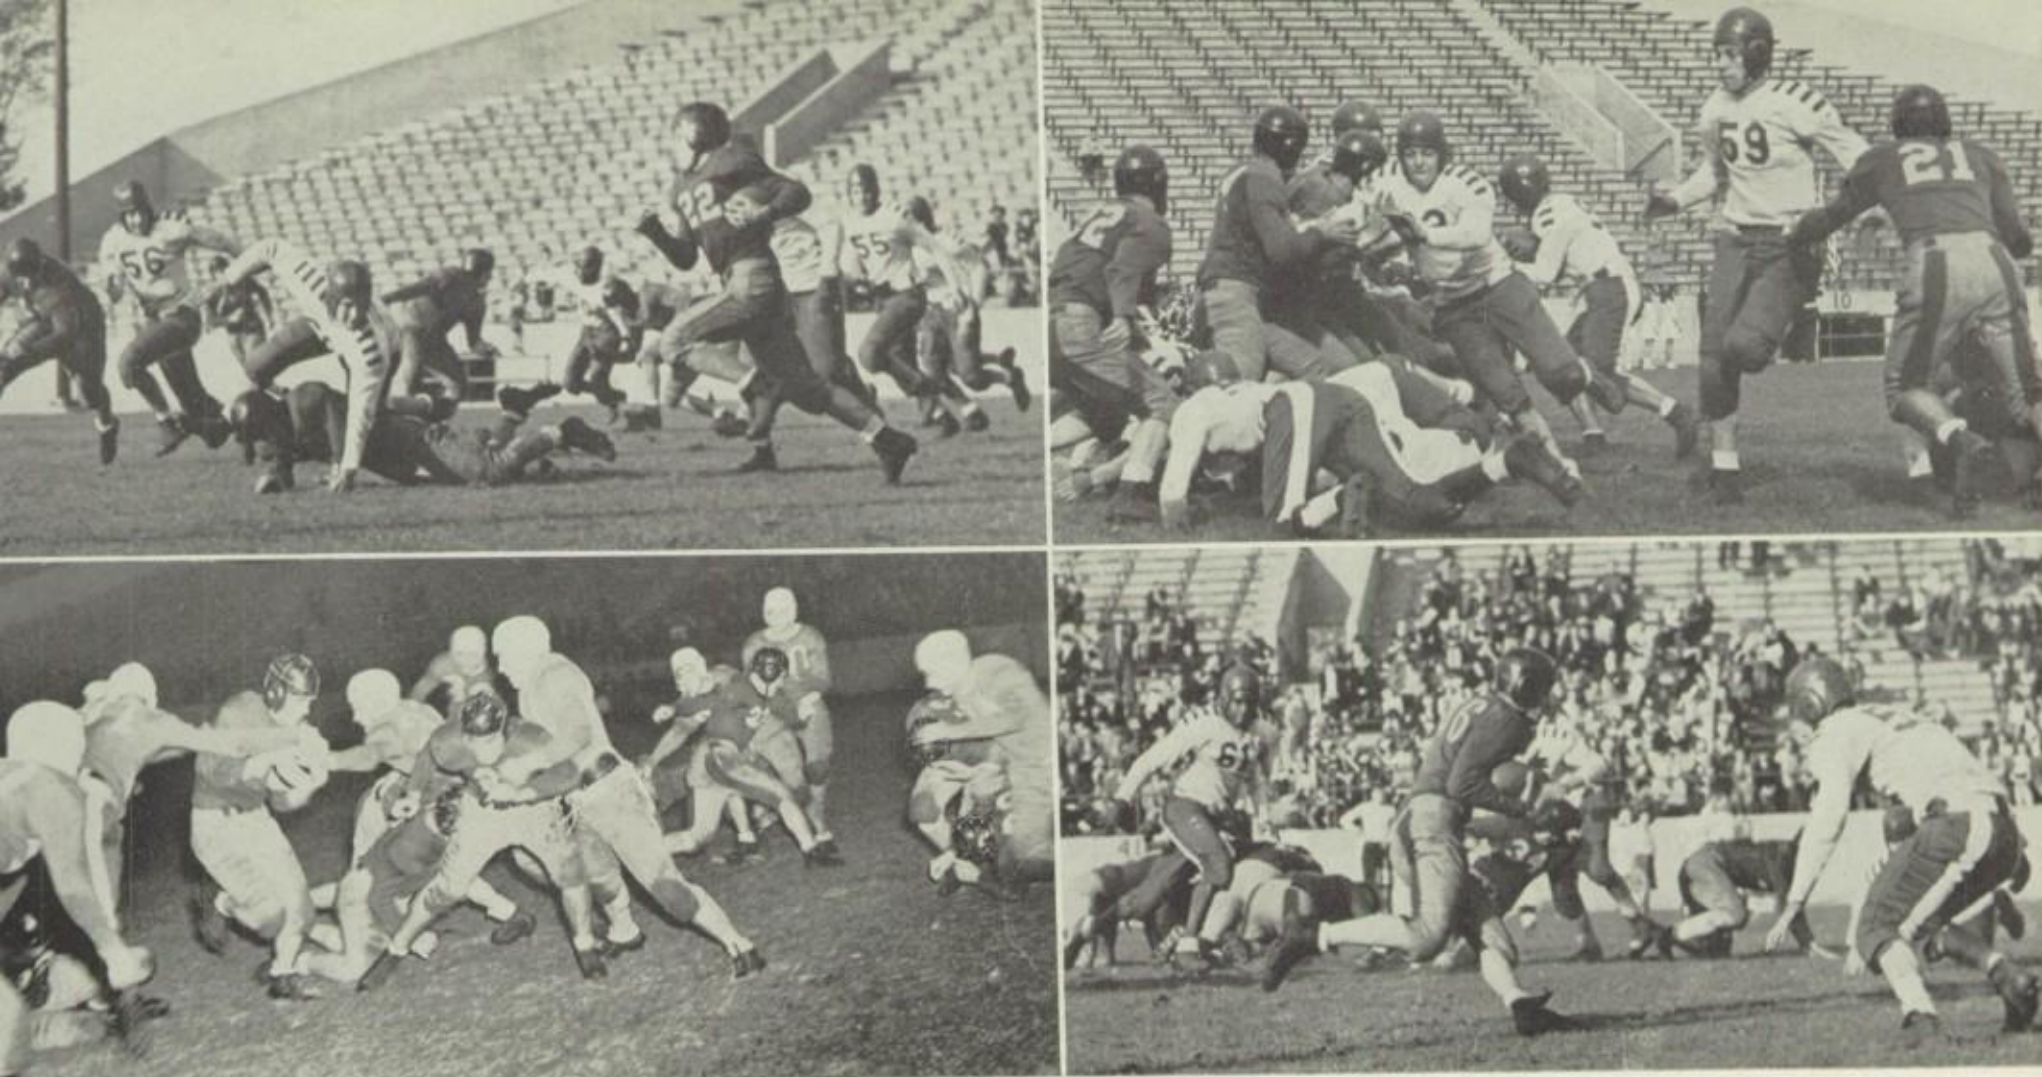

Coach Jones came to Timken from Central High. His football teams have been known for their smashing offense and their rugged defensive play. The first football team to represent Timken brought home the Little City Series Championship. The last season the Troymen won five games while dropping four in their first season of Class A football. Coach Jones' teams operate from a single wingback formation with particular stress on the two deep back-field men.

A newcomer at Timken is Head Basketball Coach Myron Prech. Mr. Prech formerly coached at Mt. Vernon High School before coming to Timken. His team did exceptionally well this year despite the fact that Coach had no opportunity to get acquainted with the set-up of our school and the boys that were to make up his varsity team.

The Trojan cagers captured the City Championship and went to the finals in the district tournament. The Vocationalists used a shifting zone defense and a fast breaking offense to roll to 18 victories in 21 starts.

The driving force behind athletic life at Timken is Mr. Wendell Williams, our Faculty Manager. Before coming to Timken Mr. Williams held the same position at Central High. His position is one of much work and the student body appreciates his capability. A few of his tasks are buying equipment, securing referees for home games and planning road trips.

One of Mr. Williams' pastimes is golfing at which he excels. Mr. Williams' greatest ambition is to manage a Timken team to a state championship.

Football

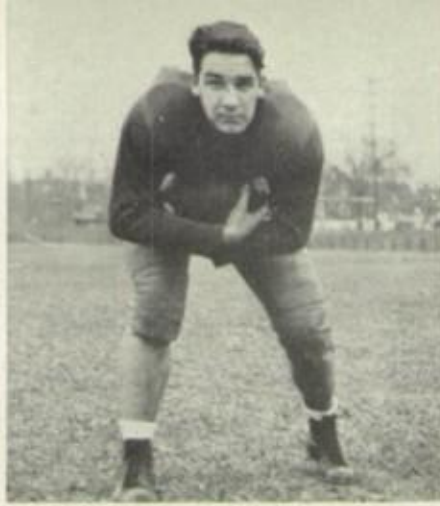

In our first year in Class A football, the Trojans of Coach Jones won five games and lost four. Timken outplayed a talented Niles McKinley team during the entire contest until a blocked kick in our end zone spelled defeat by two points.

The Vocationalists drove to two touchdowns against our intra-city rivals, the Lehman Polar Bears, only to be defeated by one point, 14-13.

Timken journeyed to Newark to play a team that captured the Central Ohio Championship on nine straight victories, but Newark's record was smashed when the Trojans bowled them over 13-7.

Before the season started the big question in Canton football was, "Will the Timken Trojans successfully make the jump between Junior High and Class A football?"

The Vocationalists' record proves that they can hold their own in the toughest of football competition.

With the prospects not too brilliant for the '40-'41 basketball season the Trojans started the season well with a win and kept gaining prestige as they rolled over team after team. The first major game was with Lehman whom they defeated 30-28. The Vocationalists continued their winning ways and trounced their other intra-city foe, McKinley, to annex the City Basketball Championship. Timken went to the finals in the district tournament at Akron before dropping a close game with Massillon 26-24. The summary of the season shows eighteen wins to three losses.

Reserve Basketball

Although experiencing a rather mediocre season the Reserves showed talent in all departments and should develop into good future material for the varsity. Some of the boys on this squad are tall and are good shots, and others are deceptive ball handlers. With a few weeks of schooling under Coach Prech these boys should be ready to carry Timken to the heights in basketball.

Golf Team

Not only on the gridiron and basketball court does Timken claim fame, but as linksmen they have performed capably. Last season they rolled up five victories to three defeats, losing the last match to McKinley by one-half point.

This year Mr. Tolson's squad will play a schedule of thirteen matches and will take part in the district tournament. Justino Procario again will be the number one man of the link squad, followed by Leo Beckerruci in the second spot. Vince Pizzoferato will add his powerful swing to the squad as the third returning veteran. The remaining fellows on the squad will be picked from such stalwart golfers as Bob Hayes, Maurice Rosenberry, Johnny Bikis, and Dick Nist. The schedule for the year is:

April 15	Orrville (here)	May 13	Alliance (here)
April 29	Akron North (there)	May 15	District Tournament

Girls' Gym Activities

Above you see those smiling champions who juggled that enormous cageball over the net to victory. Downing by a decided score all who opposed them, they came out proclaimed champions. The last battle with the Sea Rovers was a thrilling one for the sides were evenly matched. An excited crowd of screaming girls looked on as the ball was returned again and again, each time with renewed energy. The Sea Rovers were losing their light hold and gradually the Sea Hawks pulled in the lead. The word "time" ended this clattering and jumping. Shouts of rejoicing and triumph filled the gym as the winning team fell upon happy team mates to show their joy and delight. Why all this enthusiasm—because the winning team of this Intramural Tournament was to get their picture in the TIVO.

Girls from all the gym classes participated in this tournament. They were divided and put on teams by the Intramural Manager, Catherine Cline. Their games were scheduled and played, about thirty games in all. The finals were played by two Junior-Senior teams, the Sea Hawks and the Sea Rovers. Members of the G. A. A. took charge of the games to see they were played according to rules. Incidentally the team names were taken from funny page characters.

Harold Goodson, Clifford Haga, Vernon Kohn, Dean Long.

GIRLS

Irma Chiarucci, Mary Ellen Franta, Wilda Burch, Shirley Scott.

When the tryout was held for cheerleaders there were only to be four chosen. Due to the closeness of competition eight were selected. Under the careful guidance of Miss Grace Burdge they have developed into a grand outfit. Resplendent in their blue and gold uniforms and assisted by our popular mascot, "Timothy Trojan," they have succeeded in drawing from Timken's loyal rooters many lusty cheers and yells.

Features

School Calendar

SEPTEMBER

- 4—The beginning of a beautiful but lasting headache.
- 5—Among other things, a compass would come in pretty handy to these bewildered freshmen.
- 6—A gold tennis medal brightly shines on Bill Wingert's manly chest.

- 13—Hearts thumped when the football team made its first appearance.
- 15—Election of officers gave added dignity to a few class members.
- 27—Proudly presenting—the Tyro.
- 30—Seven culprits were prosecuted and convicted on charges of attending wrong assembly.

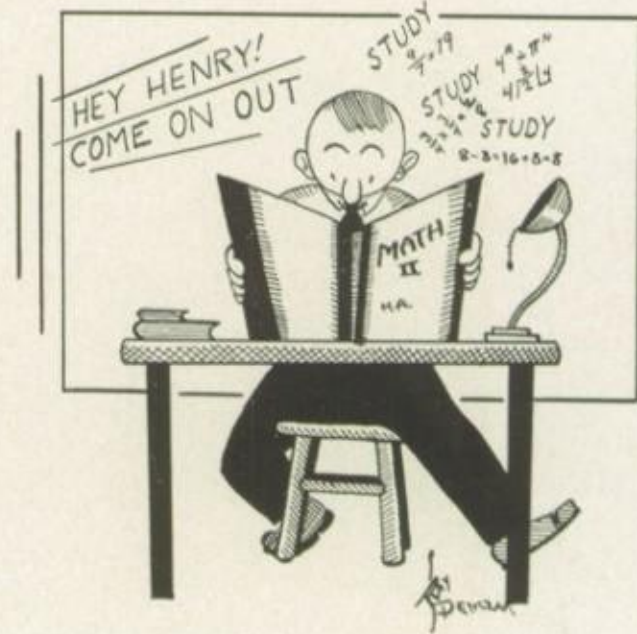

OCTOBER

- 4—Our football squad "downed" twenty dozen rolls in the school cafeteria.
- 7—Since they are going out into the world, the Seniors paid a visit to City Hall.
- 16—Why is it that the noon movies are not included in our budgets? Everywhere one goes he hears, "Got a penny to spare?"
- 25—Flukey—the result of Don Becker's artistic pen.
- 27—Everyone was whispering this morning—Last night was the Timken-Lehman game.
- 31—Woo-woo-oo! Those ghosts and goblins were too realistic to make us feel comfortable.

NOVEMBER

- 1—Oh, Joy! Students took life easy when teachers made their annual trip to Cleveland.
- 3—It's unusual when one boy gets a black eye in electric shop, but when a second is revealed, we doubt if it is a coincidence.

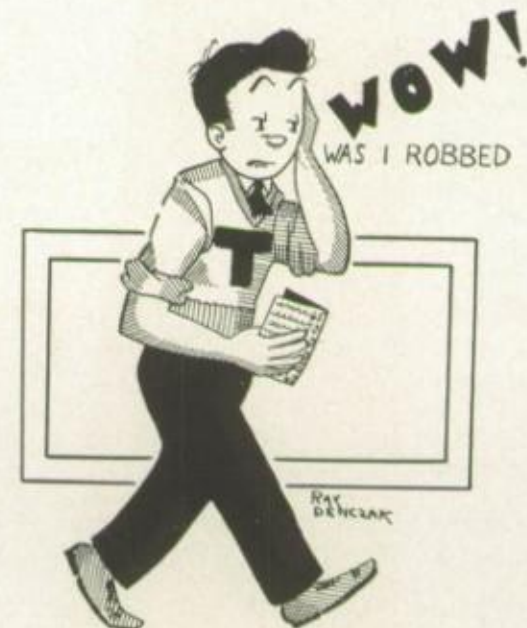

- 5—"Hen-ry, Henry Aldrich!" "What a Life!" Haga wins applause.

- 11—Two decades ago they signed a pact of peace. Our peace came, however, when school was dismissed for the day.
- 17—Betty Bartley stepped out and curiously enough came back with an interview with the "First Lady."
- 25—Four days since Thanksgiving, but we still don't feel normal. Guess we must have had too much to be thankful for.
- 29—Timken displays dramatic ability and musical talent over WHBC.

DECEMBER

- 4—Not blue Monday, but blue Wednesday. Report cards came out.

- 6—First basketball game. Of course we won.
- 10—We're beginning to doubt if water freezes.
- 18—Tea Room Bake Sale—the hospital reported no patients, so you know the cookies were more than good.

19—"Alias Santa Claus" starts us talking like the "boys" from Brooklyn.

21—At last! The long anticipated vacation.

JANUARY

1—One year was enough for Father Time, so he made way for a diaper clad new-comer.

7—Resolutions for new semester are being broken by the dozens.

10—Ice at last!

15—Fancy twirling, high stepping, and acrobatics marked the debut of our Majorettes.

21—Must every teacher choose the same examination day?

31—For once Fanny Fate was with us when Timken fans cheered us to victory.
P. S.—Lehman lost.

FEBRUARY

7—The boys answered the call to colors at the Senior Patriotic Ball and decreased the stag line.

8—At the Junior Party were bleeding hearts
As Cupid hit home with his pointed darts.

11—A dream becomes a reality as the under-rated Trojans flounced the unconquerable Bulldogs.

14—You can't have a nice complexion and eat candy too. This rule holds true even on Valentine's Day.

27—Hoo!t Still—Don't moofe, remember? You had to look pretty for the birdie that morning.

MARCH

1—The appearance of Temperamental March took on an uncertain aspect as students dashed for extra clothing and then rushed to remove them.

8—After seeing 412 in a condition that was almost neat, Miss Strauch nearly had a relapse.

14—Noses, Noses, what happened to all the noses? They were behind the Tyro.

20-21—Spotlight, Music, Action! Event? Timken Revue.

27—It took our underclassmen quite a while to decide on their future vocation, but we didn't mind, freshies, that meant no first period classes.

APRIL

1—The last day of school! — April fool!

3—The school building wasn't being razed, that was only the combined clubs' party getting hot.

14—Mr. Easter Bunny must have been mighty generous, considering the weight that was gained the week of spring vacation.

25-26—These freshmen and sophomores surely can't be overshadowed by the upper classmen from the looks of their two parties.

MAY

1—Timken's golfers got together for a confidential discussion of the coming bang-up season.

9—Our orchestra and band certainly made us proud to recognize them as Timken's own.

23—Even though the juniors couldn't attend, at least they will have something to look forward to next year—the Senior Prom.

27—For once the faculty could relax and put aside their dignity for a good time at the Teachers' Picnic.

JUNE

1—A few tears were shed at the Baccalaureate exercises.

11—The seniors had one last fling at the picnic and did they make something of it!

12—We hope that the 5 and 10 cent stores don't run out of frames for all the diplomas presented at commencement.

13—Oh, long awaited hour, at last thou hast come. Come on, old Sol, we're ready for you!

Timken Revue

"Surely it will go better tonight than it did at rehearsal!" "Of course, it will. You know, I don't feel nearly so scared as I thought I would. But tell me, are you sure I look all right?"

What was all the excitement about? Why, the Timken Revue, of course! And it went over with as big a bang as everybody had hoped it would. But we will admit that it never could have been done without the aid of several groups of very important people. First, there were the members of the Stage Craft Club and the art classes who deserve a great deal of credit for their work. Patrons were privileged to see the beautiful effects of their work in the number called "The Waltz" which also featured many pretty ladies and handsome gentlemen.

A part which brought many laughs from the onlookers were the two Blackout Sketches. One gave everybody an idea of what is going on in America as far as the "draft" is concerned and then, for a few minutes, everyone was taken across the ocean to Berlin where he witnessed a thorough inside story of the European situation.

The "oh's" and "ah's" which escaped from the lips of the audience filled each participant in the Style Show with satisfaction as he realized that he had done his part well.

Then, as we look back on the finale and see our own Swing Band being introduced and concluding the program with a dash of spice, all realize that T. V. H. S. could not possibly get along without its music department.

PIONEERS OF 1941

The traditions of those sturdy, indomitable pioneers, whose perseverance and steadfastness of purpose and ideal conquered the American wilderness and laid the foundation of our great country as it exists today, still persists unweakened in our own generation, and the youth of America will carry them on still further.

On our part, for over 38 years, we have spared no effort to make Pioneer Meats in quality, value and service, fully express the same high ideals. We welcome a new generation of Pioneer Customers.

National Printing Week was observed by the Print Shop with a display of calendars from the United States, Canada, and Nova Scotia.

A most attractive selection was made this year. The boys who planned the exhibit were Lyle Shearer, Daniel Myers, Kenneth Pfeiffer, Edward Schorsten, Lewis Haren, Bob Ferguson, and Jack Fraley.

The motive in this exhibit, the eleventh supervised by Mr. Chester A. Lyle, was directed toward promoting a greater interest on the part of the student body in printing and art.

ONWARD, TROJANS

Cecil Armitage

*Onward, Trojans, is our cry,
Fight for dear old Timken High.
Carry on right down the field,
O, never, never, yield
Our colors true—Yea, Timken.
Gold and Blue we cheer for you,
Staunch and loyal through and through,
For we will hold fast to the last
For old Timken, our Timken High.*

Your yearbook is a store of treasured memories. The oft repeated thrill of recollection which accompanies each new search through its pages will many times repay you for the care and consideration which has gone into its creation.

We are proud to have had some part in the production of this book. It indicates the wealth of ideas and ability which have made possible the Northern's long record of school annual achievement.

Frank Marchione employed art instead of words with which to express his idea of what Timken High School should mean to a graduate. Here Frank, a commercial art student, receives instruction from Mr. Glenn. The mural was exhibited in the school library.

EASIER CLEANING every week

IT LOOSENS GREASY DIRT
SO QUICK, YOU'D THINK
I HAD A MAGIC TRICK.

Here's the trick for easier, faster cleaning:

Dissolve 1 teaspoon Climalene (2 for heavy cleaning) in 1 gallon water.

Wash—no need to scrub—then wipe surface with damp cloth.

Climalene quickly dissolves grease and dirt.

Clean woodwork, painted walls, floors, linoleum, tile, stove, sink, bathroom.

No scratchy ingredients—no soap film.

10c and 25c at your grocers
